This could very well be the buy of the year! This cheap two bedroom home will excite the first home buyers in the market and also could be a great investment with the possibility of dual income. Situated on a corner block, the two bedroom house has an undercover patio & second living area however the best feature of the property is the studio cabin on the block which is currently rented for $130 per week. With a little TLC this is a great first home and has the potential to be a positively geared investment. Contact Ian Willis on 0421-780513 to inspect today.

Price : $ 260,000
