Sipping wine, ensconced in nature's beauty laid out before you, watching the sun drift slowly over the peaks of the Brisbane Waters National Park. Sitting on the deck of this 2 year old house built on rocks millions of years old. This is a special home. The stunning finish of this home is matched by the surroundings. Highly polished blackbutt timber floors, 10-foot ceilings, large windows leading out to the main deck and fully tiled wrap around verandas are a feature of the home. Downstairs is a large tiled rumpus room with floor to ceiling double glazed windows staring into the canopy of native flora. This is a great room for "YOU" time.
