Located in a really handy position, 32 Alexandra Street Umina Beach is sure to impress.

Brick and tile construction, the home features a sunny North aspect at the front and is surrounded by well manicured gardens.

The house features three well proportioned bedrooms, a large kitchen which opens onto the dining area and also a large sun-room at the rear.

Rear lane access and a block size just on 500m² means this home could be suitable for a granny flat addition (subject to council approval) however it would really also suit the first home buyer or possibly someone looking to downsize.
