Absolutely ideal for the addition of a second dwelling/ granny flat, this home should be extremely popular on the market.

Featuring a block size of approximately 612m² with easy rear lane access, there is an abundance of space to further add to the tidy 2/3 bedroom clad home that has a brand new roof and gutters as well as internal improvements such as new ceiling fans, painting and tiling.

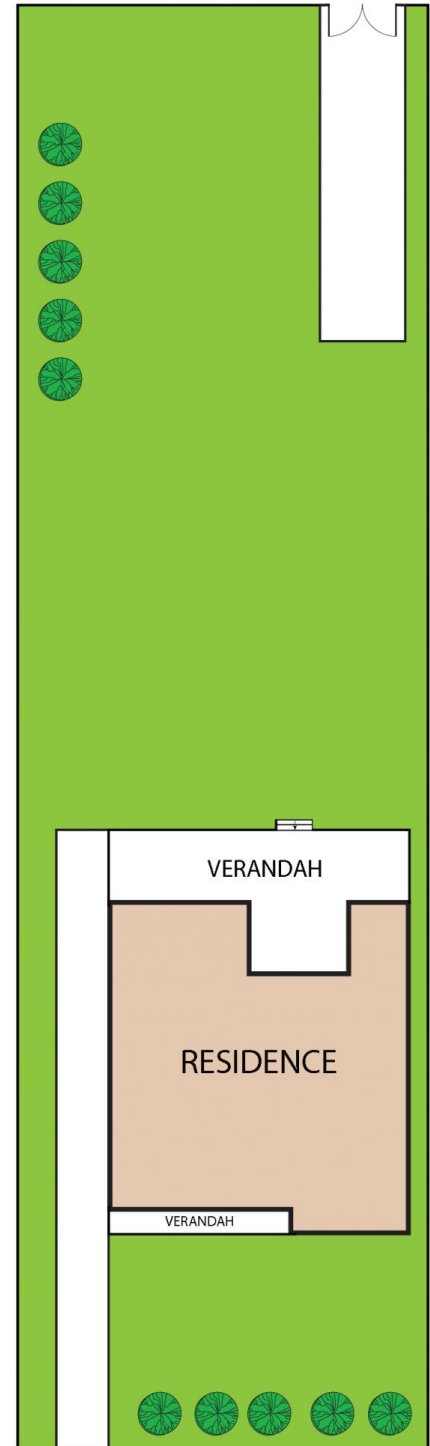

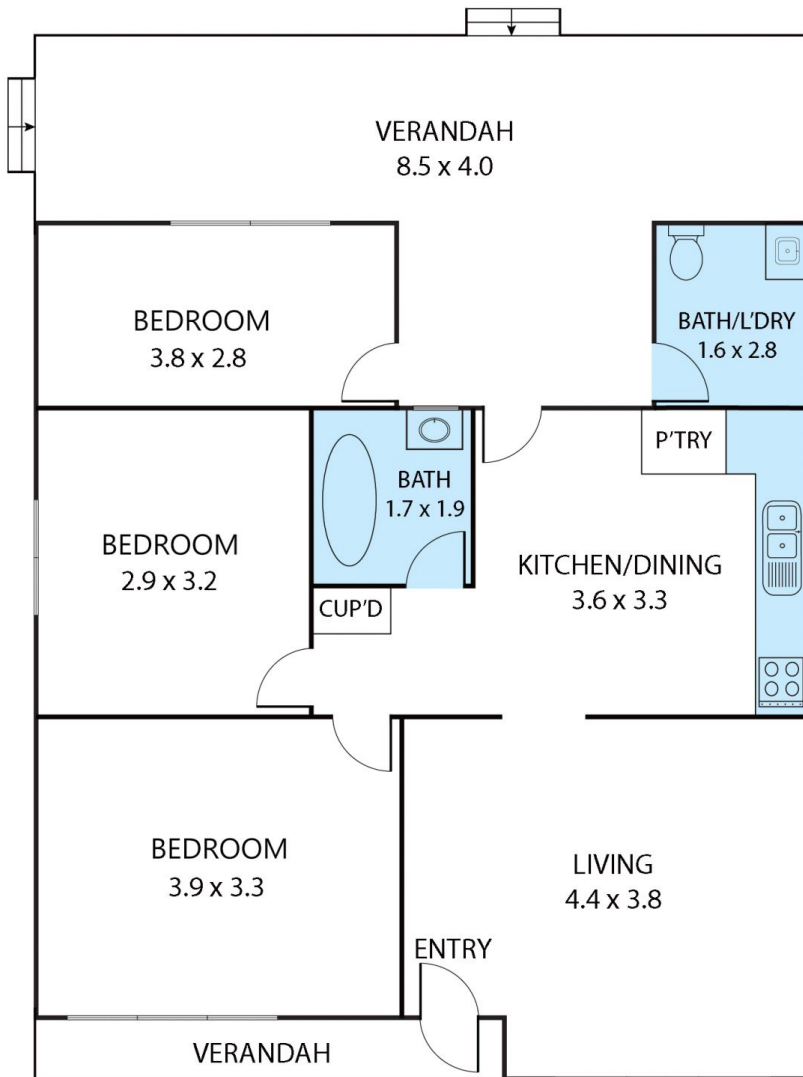

The current property would potentially rent in its current condition for approx $400 per week and with the addition of a second income, this would be great for your self managed super fund or investment port folio.
