In more cases than not when looking at properties with elevated views the compromise is trekking up countless flights of stairs. Not in this case at 106 Glenrock Parade, you get the view and the level access making this property an absolute gem. The ground floor boasts a double lock up garage with internal access, a sleek updated kitchen which flows out into the open planned living and dining area where views can be appreciated everywhere you turn. In addition to the large entertaining deck capturing 180 degree views of Brisbane Waters. Upstairs offers three well sized bedrooms all with water views and private balconies, one of which featuring an updated ensuite and main bathroom down the hallway.
